

Fabienne Fredrickson – Full Bio

Fabienne Fredrickson is founder of ClientAttraction.com, ranked on the Inc. 500/5000 List of America's Fastest Growing Private Companies in both 2011 and 2012. ClientAttraction.com is devoted to teaching entrepreneurs around the world how to consistently attract ideal, high-paying clients, put their marketing on autopilot and authentically create a highly successful and meaningful business, while working less.

Fabienne created The Client Attraction System®, the proven step-by-step program that shows entrepreneurs exactly how to attract more clients, in record time. Through her workshops, courses, coaching programs, and products, Fabienne shows her students how to create an abundant life they love.

As one of the most influential and highly-acclaimed marketing and success mindset speakers and business mentors in the world, Fabienne's down-to-earth yet powerful presentations have become legendary. She is a sought-after and much-loved coach to thousands of heart-centered entrepreneurs around the globe.

Fabienne's unique ability is getting entrepreneurs to take immediate marketing action on a systematic basis to produce dramatic results, in record time. She's dedicated her life to helping entrepreneurs and business owners create a legacy of service, adding value to the world in a lasting way and creating breakthrough paradigm shifts in their mindset and their personal income; and then giving back. Her books, newsletters, products, appearances and online reach now inspire nearly 150,000 people each month.

Fabienne's key message — that each of us is here to serve the world in a BIG way and that as a result, we are handsomely rewarded for it — has changed thousands of lives around the globe. She fervently believes in the capacity for each and every one of us to become the full expression of our purpose here on earth, and to do so, we must take a no-excuses approach to growing within. For that to happen, Fabienne teaches her students and clients that any struggle on the outside is a reflection of the struggle on the inside, and once eliminated, that internal struggle gives way to all the abundance, financial and otherwise, that a person deserves and seeks.

Highlights from Fabienne's inspiring career include:

- Ranked on the Inc. 500/5000 List of America's Fastest Growing Private Companies in 2011 and 2012
- Being named Female Entrepreneur of the Year by the Stevie Awards for Women in Business 2012
- Crossing the million dollar mark in her business at the age of 38, in an industry where most entrepreneurs barely make $20,000 a year (and doing so with 3 young children at home)
- Subsequently doubling her business nearly every year to the multi-million dollar level, always making more in the last twelve months, than she's made in the last 12 years combined (both in prosperous times and in a "recession")
- Consistently and repeatedly helping 5-figure entrepreneurs cross the 6-figure mark, and guiding 6-figure business owners to easily move to a 7-figure business, while adding more meaning, purpose and fulfillment to their daily lives
- Creating the world's most verifiable, repeatable Client Attraction System® for entrepreneurs throughout the world
- Conceiving and leading the Client Attraction Winners Academy, a series of sequential coaching programs that teach entrepreneurs exactly how to use marketing and systems to go from 5-figures to 6-figures, from 6-figures to multiple 6-figures and then to 7-figures. The Winners Academy successfully mentors hundreds of entrepreneurs every year, through its Gold Mastermind, Platinum Mastermind and Private Client tiers.

The consistent feedback from hundreds of thousands of Fabienne's students around the world over the years is that it is her authenticity, transparency, vulnerability, "humanness", sincerity and compassion and love for entrepreneurs that separates her from other mentors and is the catalyst to their expansive growth, both personally and otherwise.
